

Families for Literacy Components: Family Parties

Families are invited to parties featuring stories, fingerplays and songs, parenting workshops, hands-on activities, social time, educational games and food. At the conclusion of every party, each child in attendance selects a beautiful, brand new book to keep and treasure and to build a home library of their very own.